

Karen & Ron are Mental Health Trainers & consultants specialising in Recovery & Psychosis. Based in Scotland, they travel the world, engaging with mental health services, carers and service users - challenging them to re-view their roles and embrace recovery for All.

Recovery from Psychosis - Not An Alien Concept

DUBLIN 3RD SEPTEMBER 2007
BELFAST 4TH SEPTEMBER 2007
BIRMINGHAM 6TH SEPTEMBER 2007
GLASGOW 7TH SEPTEMBER 2007

Facilitated by Karen Taylor and Ron Coleman

AIMS

By the end of the day participants should better understand ways of working with psychosis that promote a recovery agenda. We will explore how people can and do recover from psychosis. The topics that will be explored include:

- Do diagnoses help or hinder recovery?
- How self-help really can be beneficial in psychosis
- Recovery - clinical, social or personal?
- The role of the worker
- The relationship between trauma and psychosis
- Self-harm abuse and the psychotic experience

These workshops will be useful for anyone who works in the field of Mental Health including Psychiatrists, Psychologists, Nurses, Occupational Therapists, Social Workers, Support Workers, Service Managers and Purchasers. The event will also be useful to those who use services as well as carer's and family members.
